The Data Storage System shows how patient data is stored. DataSorage class contains a map of patients and their records. PatientData class stores individual patient information. A single instance of DataStorage can contain multiple PatientData inctances. DataRetreiver is a secure accessor to DataStorage. Splitting storage and retrieval makes it easier to control data flows, reduce coupling and enhance maintainability.